

Administrative Regulation

Student Teachers, Placement and Supervision of

Placement of student teachers shall be directed by the superintendent, but the responsibility and authority for administering student teacher programs rests with the assistant superintendent, Office of Personnel Services.

The supervising teacher shall remain in the classroom with the student teacher until evidence clearly demonstrates the appropriate proficiency necessary for the student teacher to conduct the class alone.

Teachers who accept the assignment of, and the responsibility for, the direct supervision and instruction of classroom teaching by student candidates for teaching credentials shall receive remuneration by February 1 for student teaching completed in the fall semester, and by June 1 for student teaching completed in the spring semester, if the training institution provides such remuneration to the district. No district funds may be used for this purpose.
